Registration necessary for catering purposes.

Paperwork will be forwarded to attendees and will need to be completed prior to the event.

This is a great opportunity for all ACDS members including:

- Current dressage judges: to renew their accreditation and update knowledge
- New judges: to further their education
- Prospective judges: to begin the qualification process, or just find out more about the accreditation process
- All drivers and interested members who wish to learn more about Driven Dressage

All members interested in beginning the process to accredit as a Dressage Judge can download the Judges Training Package from the Federal ACDS Website.
